

The Big Buddha on the Hill

Good afternoon, everyone:

Today, I want to tell you a story about a very special friend in Changhua. He is huge, he sits on a hill, and he has a big smile. He is the Baguashan Great Buddha!

When you visit Changhua, the first thing you see is this giant Buddha statue. He is as tall as a seven-story building! He sits on a beautiful lotus flower and looks down at the city. For over sixty years, he has been watching over the people, just like a kind grandfather.

Did you know that you can actually walk inside the Buddha? Yes, he is hollow! Inside, there are small stairs. As you climb up, you can see beautiful pictures that tell stories. My favorite part is looking out from the Buddha's eyes. From up there, all the houses and cars below look like tiny toys. It makes me feel like I am flying in the sky!

Behind the big statue, there is a beautiful temple. This temple is very cool because it welcomes everyone. It honors Confucius, the famous teacher, Guan Yu, the brave warrior, and the Buddha. It shows us how people in Taiwan love peace and harmony.

When evening comes, the sun goes down and the sky turns orange and pink. The Big Buddha shines in the golden light. It is a beautiful view that makes everyone feel warm and happy.

The world changes every day, but the Great Buddha always stays on the hill with his peaceful smile.

Thank you very much!

Lukang — The Time Travel Town

Good afternoon, honorable judges, and teachers:

Today, I want to take you to a magical place in Changhua. It is an old town where history comes alive. Welcome to Lukang!

Long ago, Lukang was a busy port filled with big ships and traders. Today, walking into Lukang feels like stepping into a time machine.

Our first stop is the famous Old Street. Here, you will see traditional red-brick houses and beautiful wooden doors. The streets are narrow and winding, making it perfect for an adventure.

One of the funniest spots is Mo-Ru Lane, or "Breast-Touching Lane." This alley is so incredibly narrow that only one person can pass at a time. If two people meet, they have to squeeze past each other! It always brings a big smile to visitors.

Next, we visit the Lukang Longshan Temple. It is a peaceful place with amazing wood carvings. When you stand inside, you can smell the sweet incense and feel the deep history around you.

But Lukang is not just about old buildings; it is also about delicious food! You must try the crispy ox-tongue cakes and fresh oyster pancakes. They are sweet, savory, and absolutely amazing.

Before we leave, we can see traditional artists making colorful lanterns and delicate fans by hand.

Lukang is a town where the past and the present live together. It shows us the beauty of Taiwan's culture and roots. If you love history, smiles, and good food, Lukang is waiting for you!

Thank you very much!
